Note: The Network strongly believes that financial concerns should not inhibit participation in our programs. You may choose to register with the amount you feel appropriate. Or, you may consider as an individual contributing an amount that would cover another's participation.

Please let us know if you require accommodation for a disability or a dietary restriction (for breakfast, lunch and snacks provided), and how we can help you:

If you would like to, please tell us something about yourself and why you are interested in multicultural issues:

What other workshops on this topic have you attended?

What would you like to learn, acquire, accomplish by the close of the workshop?
